

Local Breeders Win at Plains Dairy Show

Marion Bruce was elected vice-president of the Texas Milking Shorthorn Breeders' Association and appointed chairman of the sales committee for the coming year when the group met in connection with the Plainsview Dairy Show in Plainview last week. R. A. Brown is serving his second year as director of the same group, and Reeves Donnell has been past director for two years.

H. B. Hales & Sons, Randall County, were challenged as dominant Holstein breeders of the region for the first time in many years at the Plainsview Show. Holstein department entries rose to a new high mark, with some 82 entries in the show ring.

The Hales family withstood the onslaught of competing South Plains breeders in taking six out of eight first places and the grand championship in the female division. But other contestants, notably Cloverlake Dairy Farm, Plainview, and C. L. Coyle & Son, Lubbock, contested their domination in the bull division. The Hales won only two out of five first places in the male competition and lost the grand championship to Goble's Stalwart.

But even in losing the grand championship bull, the Hales derived certain satisfaction. The top-honor winner was of Hales' breeding. Hales' Inka May, owned by Goble & Sons, came from the Hales' herd and was junior grand champion of the 1946 dairy show.

The Hales' female, Cedar Grove Annabelle, romped over all other animals to edge championship honors for the fair sex of Holstein-dom. Other female first place winners included consignments of Cloverlake Farm and M. F. Cowan, Lubbock.

Milking Shorthorn Cattle of Randall County from the herds of R. A. Brown, Marion Bruce, and Reeves Donnell stood in the upper brackets of their classes at the Dairy Show, and animals consigned to the Annual Milking Shorthorn Sale from the county were among the most desired by the many buyers from Texas and surrounding states.

A prominent Kansas breeder who flew to Don Acres Farm last July and bought ten top females added another Don Acres bred animal by buying Reeves Donnell's sale heifer. A sister of this sale heifer which has an official record of almost 8,000 pounds, as a senior yearling, was classified "Very Good," and J. W. Spencer's herd bull is her son.

Placing from Randall county in the Milking Shorthorn Division were: Females in milk calved before March 1, 1942, R. A. Brown, fifth; Marion Bruce, seventh. Females calved between March 1, 1944 and February 28, 1945, Marion Bruce, second. Females calved between March 1, 1945 and August 31, 1945, Reeves Donnell, fourth; Marion Bruce, sixth. Females calved between September 1, 1945 and February 28, 1946, R. A. Brown, tenth. Females calved between March 1, 1946 and December 31, 1946, R. A. Brown, seventh.

Bulls calved before March 1, 1944, R. A. Brown, fourth. Bulls calved between March 1, 1944 and February 28, 1945, Reeves Donnell, second. Bulls calved between March 1, 1946 and December 31, 1946, Marion Bruce, fourth; R. A. Brown, fifth.

Pair cows in milk: R. A. Brown, sixth. Graded Herd: R. A. Brown, third. Pair of calves: R. A. Brown, fourth; Marion Bruce, seventh. Get of Sire: Don Acres Farm, third, Marion Bruce, fifth.

Albert Combs, 90, Died at Pampa

Albert Combs, banker and rancher of Pampa, died Sunday following a heart attack suffered Friday. He was a brother of G. B. Combs of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Combs went to Pampa to attend funeral services conducted there Tuesday afternoon. Interment was in Amarillo.

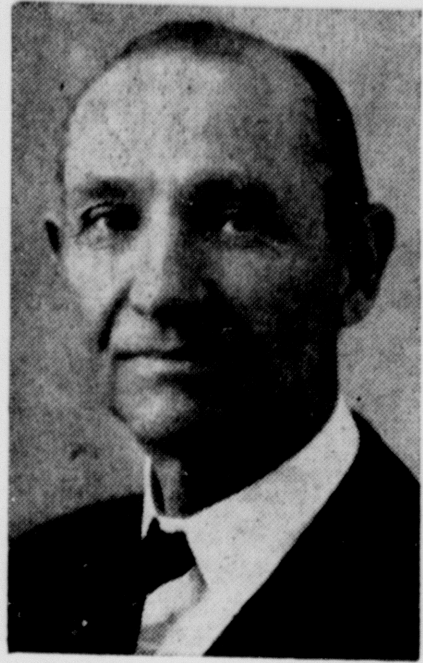

Just three weeks ago, Pampa honored Mr. Combs with an all-day party celebrating his 90th birthday anniversary and his 80th year in Texas.

McIntire Sells City Pharmacy After 36 Years

N. E. MCINTIRE

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rogers and Mrs. Mark Foster this week announced the purchase of the City Pharmacy from Mr. and Mrs. N. E. McIntire. The deal was closed last Friday, and the establishment will continue to operate under the same name, Mrs. Foster said.

Mr. Rogers was formerly engaged in the real estate business in Amarillo, and Mrs. Foster has been employed with the City Pharmacy for the past eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. McIntire stated that they plan to "take it easy" for the present after owning and operating the store for 36 years. They expressed their appreciation to the people of Canyon for the support and patronage which they have given for so many years, and urged that they continue with the new owners.

Local Citizens Contribute To Tornado Relief

Approximately $2,000 was mailed yesterday to the Globe-News Relief Fund to assist the people of Glazier and Higgins in rebuilding the property which lost in the tornado.

This does not account for all of the money which has been raised in Randall county, as about $1,000 has gone directly to the Globe-News.

A list of donors was kept at the City Hall until yesterday. Mrs. T. H. Knighton was in charge of the fund, and a cashier's check was forwarded by L. W. Cole to the Amarillo papers.

The fund was increased Wednesday when the members of the Umbarger church sent in $307.

The fund stood at $1,387 until yesterday when additional contributions amounting to $500 were received.

Practically every organization and church in Randall county have donated to the relief fund.

The local Methodist church has raised $500 for rebuilding the Methodist Church in Higgins, which was destroyed.

Mrs. Vie Bechtold was a visitor during the week end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hammond in Dalhart.

United Fight on Bindweed Plan Of Panhandle

Panhandle farmers and agricultural workers have an organized movement on foot to control bindweed, one of the state's biggest farm and pasture land weed pests.

A group of farmers, county commissioners, ACA committeemen, county agricultural agents and other agricultural workers met in Amarillo recently and organized the West Texas Weed Control Association to request assistance in using latest research information and to organize a Panhandle-wide effort to combat bindweed.

Officers elected were: Art Bralley, Potter County Agent, chairman; D. F. Osborne, Pampa, Gray County farmer, vice-chairman; and Rex Baxter, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce manager, secretary.

Bralley was authorized to appoint an executive committee which consisted of Osborne, Baxter, Audie Conley, Ochiltree County farmer; E. N. Jacobson, Oldham County farmer, Earl Laney, Hale County farmer, and B. E. McCormick, Randall County farmer.

A resolutions committee, consisting of Osborne, V. E. Hafner, Childress, and J. E. Laney of Hale County, was appointed. The committee drew up a resolution which asked for assistance from the Texas A. and M. Experiment Station, in conducting research and in developing methods of controlling bindweed. Copies of the resolution have been sent to the president of Texas A. and M. and various state senators and representatives.

The group voted to add as ex-officio members of the organization the following: Knox Parr, district agent of the Extension Service; Wortham Seale, of PMA; Sid Payne, member of the State Soil Conservation Board; Joe Hutton, of the Texas Farm Bureau; Joe Berg, of the Texas Farmers Union; and a representative from the State Highway Engineers, and each of the railway lines in Amarillo.

School Needs Are Subject Discussion at Rotary Luncheon

The Rotary Club took a look at the Canyon public schools at the luncheon Tuesday. Dr. James Russell was in charge of the program and introduced Supt. Elmer Wooten of the public schools, who outlined the needs of the schools.

Mr. Wooten showed interesting charts regarding the public schools, which indicated the increased cost of operation during the past few years.

It is believed that the districts which are sending their pupils to the Canyon schools are not paying a proportionate part in the operation of the schools. This is brought about by the higher values on property in Canyon since this is an independent taxing unit. Values in the common school district are set by the commissioners court.

The minimum wage scale this year for the teachers is $1,400. In with trustees from the districts in order to increase the pay in accordance with the provisions of the new state law taxes must be increased. Even the $1.50 tax levy may not bring in enough money to increase the salaries of the teachers to the $2,000 minimum set in the new law.

Mr. Wooten recalled that the voters of Canyon rejected the increase in taxes two years ago. It will be necessary to submit the question to the tax payers again this year. The board will have to abide by the judgment of the voters.

The children of Canyon are entitled to better school facilities than they are getting, stated Mr. Wooten. There is great need for increased vocational agriculture, with a separate building for instruction.

Vocational subjects are taught in the high school, together with the band room, music rooms and the cafeteria. A new building between the high school and the grade school should house these departments in order to eliminate unnecessary noise from the high school building.

It was proposed that a citizens' committee be appointed in order to assist the board members in presenting the need of more taxes to the people of the district.

Rotary Ann night was postponed from next Tuesday until May 6 because of so many conflicts.

Visitors were: Harry M. Bainer, Arch Hunsley, Horace Griggs, John Oakes, J. J. Sanders, Guy Saunders, E. L. Prey, Forrest Barnes, Allen Early, Harry Brown, all of Amarillo; W. A. Anderson, Lovington, N. M.; J. B. Hickman, J. W. Spencer and Mr. Wooten of Canyon.

Mrs. S. S. Coffee of Amarillo spent Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jim Coffee, while Mr. Coffee did relief carpenter work at Higgins.

Governor Jester Lets School Bill Become Law

Governor Jester announced Saturday evening that he was filing the two school bills to become law without his approval. The bills provide a per capita apportionment of $55, and a minimum salary of $2,000 per year for teachers, if the funds are available.

The Governor criticized the bills as being inadequate and that teachers deserve better than these bills offer.

"The children who attend the schools and those children who do not attend but who should attend, deserve better."

"The state of Texas with the large allocation of funds which it makes to the schools—the state of Texas deserves better than this stop-gap, inefficient legislation."

The bills provide for payment of a minimum per capita apportionment of $55 and establishment of a minimum salary schedule of $2,000 a year, when sufficient funds are available for such a schedule.

"I would not be honest to my convictions if I took any part in perpetuating or expanding this method of public school financing in Texas," Jester declared, adding:

"I cannot conscientiously and, therefore, I will not sign the per capita bills."

Oil Test Well Will Be Drilled East of Canyon

It is reported this morning that materials are being assembled on the Hugh Currie ranch east of Canyon for a test well for oil.

The location of the test well is a mile east of the Currie ranch headquarters, and about five miles northwest of the Palo Duro Park entrance.

It has been known for several months that interested parties have been working for a deep test and a large acreage has been blocked for the test.

Several other test wells have been drilled in Randall county but none of them have been sufficiently deep, according to experienced oil men who have been studying the situation here.

Get Ready, Maw, It's Cloudin' Up Again!

Dogs, Dogs, Dogs Too Many Dogs In Canyon!

There are too many dogs in Canyon.

Last week it was suggested that every citizen ask himself, "Is this dog necessary?"

Dogs are biting people. Dogs are tearing up lawns. Dogs are destroying flowers.

Dogs roam the streets in packs of from six to a dozen.

Mrs. Bernice Watkins was bitten Monday by a stray dog. Other people have protested that stray dogs have attacked them.

Frank B. Parker, city clerk, says that complaints have been registered because of the large amount of dogs in Canyon.

There is a city ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at large. The city has an ordinance requiring tags for dogs, but the city has no tags to offer for sale at this time.

Mayor W. A. Warren states that this is a warning to all citizens who wish to keep their dogs alive. In a few days the city will organize to kill off the strays which roam the streets and molest the people. Those citizens who wish to keep their dogs must keep them on their own property.

Red Cross Asks Contributions For Texas City

The American Red Cross has appealed for voluntary funds from all chapters to assist with the relief work at Texas City. The terrible disaster last week killed more than 600 citizens of that town; injured about 2,000 and practically wiped out this industrial center of 15,000 population.

The Randall County Red Cross Chapter has not been called upon to make a donation from its funds, but the citizens of Randall County have been asked to leave relief funds at the City Hall or the Bank. Donors should make it clear that the funds go to Texas City. Contributions for Glazier and Higgins tornado disaster are being received at both of these places.

Box Supper Will Be Held Tuesday At Canyon High

An old-fashioned box supper will be held at the Canyon high school Tuesday night, April 29, sponsored by the Future Homemakers Club of that school.

The public is invited to attend this affair which will begin at 7 o'clock in the school gymnasium. Proceeds will go toward a camping trip for the FHA members.

Highlights of the entertainment will include the selection of the handsomest man, the most beautiful girl, and similar titles with prizes to be awarded the winners.

"Uncle Jay" and Stuart Condon, KGNC announcers, of Amarillo are expected to be on hand to add color to the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crowder of Clovis, N. M., and Mrs. W. I. Wester spent the week end in Vernon visiting with Mr. Crowder's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Crowder, and with his grandparents. Mrs. Crowder is a daughter of Mrs. Wester.

Roy Carver of Amarillo was a guest recently in the home of his mother, Mrs. J. C. Carver, and with other relatives here.

Cancer Fund Is Being Sought in Randall County

Rev. Hubert Thomson, chairman of the local county campaign of the American Cancer Society and Rev. Joseph Findley, Secretary, announced Tuesday, April 22, that contributions to the fund stood at $123.52. This amount is a little over a third of the quota for the county. Approximately eight hundred letters were sent to people throughout the county. Thus far there have been but 23 responses to these letters.

The quota as a county is $310. The campaign will continue until April 30. All persons who wish to give to the cancer drive are asked to hand or mail their contributions to either Hubert Thomson or Joseph Findley or deposit their donations in the American Cancer Society account at the First National Bank in Canyon.

The nationwide goal in this drive is $12,000,000. Randall county is made up of generous and conscientious American citizens, and it is confidently believed by the chairman and secretary of the drive that the county goal will be more than reached.

Substation For Mail Delivery Bids Are Filed station in the east part of Canyon have been sent to Washington where the post office department is considering the bids.

One of the bids was filed by West Texas State and the other by Ray Campbell and associates. Both were sealed bids.

When an inspection was made recently by the post office department regarding free delivery, it was pointed out that a substation could be established if a proper bid was made by citizens of the east part of Canyon. There is no indication as to when the department will announce its decision. The inspector made a complete survey regarding the substation while in Canyon.

W. S. Allen, Extension Agricultural Building Engineer, of College Station, was in Canyon attending to business matters Monday.

Mrs. Ed Harrell returned Friday after an extended visit to Georgia and Florida.

Schools Making Survey of Taxes For the Future

Representatives from many of the common school districts of Randall county met Monday night with trustees of the Canyon Independent School District for the purpose of considering the problem of adequately financing the schools of the county. About 50 trustees were present.

With a number of school transferring students to the Canyon schools, a movement was started for those sending students here to pay tuition comparable to the cost which is paid in local taxes from the citizens of the Canyon Independent School District. This amounts to $106 per pupil in the grade school, and $130 for the high school. None of the districts are levying the maximum of $1.50 per $100 valuation for school purposes.

Representatives of the common school districts stated that they were willing to increase their tax rates. However the revenue from many of these districts will not be sufficient to pay the proportionate tuition because of the higher values in the independent school district as compared to values in the common school districts. Values in Canyon are set by an independent tax board, while values as set by the commissioners court are taken in the common school district.

Trustees in five districts which send their students to Canyon are committed to increasing their tuition, while the taxpayers in other districts are being consulted by the trustees as to future action.

If the teachers are to be paid the $2,000 minimum salary as set by the new state law, taxes must be raised in Canyon, and tuition increased in the sending districts in order to meet the additional cost of operating the schools.

Farm Bureau To Hold Meeting on Friday Evening

The Canyon community of the Farm Bureau will hold a meeting in the Court House, Friday, April 25 at 8 p. m.

J. W. Spencer, Chairman of the Canyon Community Farm Bureau group will preside at the meeting. Other members of the local committee are Mrs. E. A. Michael, Secretary, B. A. Burrus and H. R. Huns-gate.

Telephone Strike Is Still in Progress Over the Nation

The nation-wide telephone strike continues into its third week. It is reported from Washington that a break may come at any time as the employees and company are trying to get together.

Canyon citizens have expressed high appreciation of the members of the local staff who have continued to give local service in spite of the handicap of being understaffed. Local service has been very satisfactory largely due to the fact that long distance calls have largely been eliminated.

Boys Club Starts Playing Softball

Boys of all ages are invited to attend the meeting of the Canyon Boys' Club at the high school Friday night at 7:30. Anyone wishing to play softball with the club, which is competing in the newly organized softball league, is requested to contact R. C. Robins, telephone 588-W.

Seventy-nine boys and their dads were present at the last meeting, and it is hoped that there will be even a larger number playing ball Friday.

Activities will include basketball, boxing and softball.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Pafford and children of Claude spent the week end as guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Connally Lockhart. Mrs. Lockhart is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pafford.

Guests recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Higdon were W. R. Haynes, Bard, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Haynes, Santa Fe, and Mrs. Arthur LeBlanc of Pithburg, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Cook have returned to Canyon to make their home. They have resided in Dumas for the past several years, and have just returned from a vacation trip to several points down state.

Editorials

Colonel Ernest O. Thompson spoke frankly to the Panhandle Press Association last week. If there is a World War III, it will be over oil. Colonel Thompson heartily approved the policy of President Truman of extending aid to Greece and Turkey. He stated that there is a great supply of oil in the near east, which Russia hopes to control. This oil field has been developed by American capital. The field is owned by Americans who dared to explore. Americans must have this oil in order to remain the leading world power. Yet that makes little or no difference to Stalin and his gang, who would steal the oil and the resources of Americans who operate there. Russia must have oil if she is to become a great military power. The only way to combat Russian influence in the oil field is to keep Greece and Turkey strong. Colonel Thompson was sent to Europe during the war by President Roosevelt. He flew over all this oil producing territory. He knows whereof he speaks. If Russia gets control of this vast store of oil, she will gladly try to whip us. If Russia fails to get the oil, there is little she can do. America has no desire for another war, but the people of this nation are not willing to be dragged into another war simply for the sake of being friends to an unfriendly nation.

We would like to see the administration soundly spank Henry Wallace, who has been making Communist speeches in England. But such a thing would simply play into the hands of the Communists, and Wallace would be set on a tin throne as their idol. Henry Wallace has been a financial failure, but he glories in giving away the money which the industrious people of the nation have made. So far as he is concerned, the more money he can give away the more pleasing it is to Wallace. We are not particularly afraid of Henry and his gang of Communists now that sanity seems to prevail in Washington following the extravagant days of war spending. To make a martyr of Wallace at this time would be a mistake. He is being taken seriously by too few people to really count in these fateful days. The people of America fully realize now that they are going to be called upon to pay that 268 billion dollar national debt. They are not interested in giving Russia the resources of America in order to please Henry Wallace.

We see where the telephone operators at Woodward, Okla., resigned from the union when they were ordered not to work in the face of the terrible tragedy which hit that town. They were ordered to continue picketing in the face of disaster. Personally, we can see little sense in the demands which has caused nation-wide strike of telephone workers. Thousands of them are now wondering just what it is all about and whether they did not make a mistake in walking out upon orders of their chiefs. However, the members of the telephone union are like the members of other unions—just follow orders and ask no questions. We hope that the people of every community of the nation will remember those who stayed on the job during this trying strike and give them a word of cheer. Attorney for the union now claims that the company will hold out with view of breaking the union. We do not know, but we are forcefully reminded that union men out on strike in the Allis-Chalmers Co. went back to work after an 11-months old strike without any benefit and lost millions of dollars in wages. Maybe the telephone company, which is owned by about 350,000 American citizens, will decide to do the same thing.

The Newsman lost a good personal friend in the tornado which swept the Northwest Panhandle last week. Miss Ida M. Farrell was killed at Glazier. In 1912 Miss Farrell and the Newsman joined the Panhandle Press Association when a group of seven publishers met at McLean to revive the Panhandle Press Association. At that time Miss Farrell was publishing a weekly newspaper at Glazier, which was hand-set. This little paper was her pride and joy. She won a number of prizes with her paper, because she put such untiring efforts in the production of the paper. After she discontinued the paper and moved to Amarillo Miss Farrell took over the San Jacinto Booster, which was published for a number of years by the Canyon News. A few years ago she returned to her old home in Glazier and has been doing freelance writing for several weekly newspapers in her section of the Panhandle. Her newspaper career was a success. "30" came at the age of 70 years, when timbers from her wrecked home crushed her head. We hope that she did not suffer physical pain. She had no fear of death.

Texas is the 12th state in the union to pass a "Right to Work" bill, which Governor Jester has signed. Naturally the bill does not set well with labor racketeers, who alone are responsible for the necessity of such a bill. The News regrets that union leaders have been so greedy in their demands that anti-union legislation has been forced upon the nation. The blame is not all on one side, as industry has, in many cases, been at fault in the selfish attitude of the officers. It is unfortunate that the war made another big batch of millionaires in spite of the declaration at the start of the war that such a thing would not be permitted. The government has thrown away billions of dollars which the people will have to pay, simply because of the unwise policy of turning industry and labor loose at a time when strict regulation was promised. What a mess! What a mess!

We have always been interested in the old fashioned town meetings, which have lately been revived over the radio. Recently a service club in Canyon has followed this plan of discussing local affairs. It is a healthy situation when local citizens get together and discuss conditions with the view of being of usefulness to the community. Constructive criticism is always a good thing. Those who have an ache, but are unwilling to do something to correct conditions which are distasteful to them, are mighty poor citizens and are doing little for the good of the community. We have the best government when all of the citizens are active in the support of the government and will take a hand to correct any evils which they may find in the government. It would be a fine thing if all of the citizens of Canyon would get together and really let their hair down in discussing local conditions as they see the situation.

We see where certain political propagandists down at Austin are jumping on the administrations of both the University of Texas and A & M. College. As usual, it is charged that the Regents of these great institutions are numskulls, and that the presidents are unfit for their jobs. These charges come largely from trouble makers who have an ax to grind, and have been unsuccessful at their game. Personally we believe that the governing bodies of these great schools are above the average as citizens of Texas, and are taking an intelligent interest in the welfare of the schools. Perhaps the presidents, who are chosen by the regents, may not be in the same class with educators in other states. But it should be kept in mind that Texas has been stingy with the finances of our schools. If we do not have the best educators at the head of the state institutions, just blame it on the policy of penny pinching which has prevailed in the legislature and is endorsed by the people.

Colonel Ernest O. Thompson is a great friend of the Panhandle Press Association. He has entertained the press annually for 26 years on Friday night of the convention. He states that he has started on his second quarter century of friendly and most cordial relationship for the press. We do not know of a single press association in the world which has such a fine friend as Colonel Thompson. His co-operation with the Panhandle Press Association has done much to hold that organization together. May Colonel Thompson live out his second quarter century!

The News was bawled out the other day for saying so much about labor troubles and strikes. We have always thought that labor was free to work where and when it chose; and no person should work for any firm or corporation in which it had no interest and in which the workers had a personal interest and pride in his work. Capital and labor go hand in hand. Neither can succeed without the other. The businesses or corporations which are not filling a need in the nation cannot long exist; and the worker who does not connect himself with the type of business which is fulfilling a real need is wasting his time. We are of the opinion that no strike is justified, and none would occur if both capital and labor would observe the Golden Rule.

There may be few, or maybe no, stray dogs in Canyon. But there are sure a lot of dogs which roam the streets aimlessly and seemingly without ownership. It would be a good thing to start a campaign to kill off all dogs which do not have current tags on their collars. Most of the dogs that we see on the streets do not even have a collar.

The tornado in the Panhandle and the terrible blasts and fires in Texas City have certainly shaken the people of Texas. The response to the call for help has been magnificent. Sometimes we think that we live in a cold, hard world; but when tragedy hits we find that the hearts of people are overflowing with kindness and sympathy for the unfortunate.

The prospects German industry in the U. S.-British zones will reach the targets set for exports this year are still diminishing. Floods, following the severe winter, are creating new transportation problems. Raw materials are not arriving in any substantial volume. Bi-zonal publicity now is emphasizing the three-year aspects of the industrial plan, saying little about the outlook for 1947.

The aim is to prevent another "Democratic" government like the easily overthrown Weimar Republic from becoming a fact.

Bulgaria is negotiating with Switzerland for a $2,800,000 loan. One serious hitch, however, is that all Bulgarian exports are under strict Soviet control and most Bulgarian exports have to be sold to Russia. Because of this, the Swiss are demanding gold from Bulgaria as collateral for any loan that is agreed upon between the two countries.

Because of the widespread prejudice against Japanese-made goods, General of the Army Douglas MacArthur has instructed the Japanese Government to label the country's products, "Made in Occupied Japan," rather than the usual "Made in Japan."

TIME . . . IS RUNNING OUT!

No one wants to get caught short these days.

But a lot of farmers may find themselves in that shape if needed repairs are not made before the opening of spring work.

Shortages and strikes have badly curtailed machinery production.

Needed repairs are almost impossible to get.

If your farming equipment breaks down during the busy season it will simply be too bad.

We urge every farmer to check his equipment now, and not get caught short at harvest time.

Your combine will have to do another big job this harvest. See to it that repairs are made now, and not wait until the rush of harvest.

HARDEN & HEATH

Local Man Tells Of Tornado and Asks Donations

After looking over the ruin and havoc wrought by the tornado at Higgins and Glazier, I can hardly believe yet that such a thing could happen right here in our own state of Texas, next door to us. The ruin is as complete as any caused by either war in towns of Belgium or France. In fact looking over these two towns, it just seems fantastic and impossible to have happened right here in the Panhandle.

As is usually the case the weather has been right on hand doing its part to complete this scene of ruin and desolation ever since the storm, with several inches of slushy snow and rivulets of water running everywhere, flooding what is left standing of the buildings. Many walls of which are still standing at a crazy and dangerous angle.

Through the countryside, there are miles and miles of barb wire, together with the bark, blown completely off the fence posts. Telegraph and telephone poles blown completely out of the ground, and other poles hanging at every crazy angle imaginable. A mass of twisted wire is wrapped so tightly around them that you really wonder how they could get in such shape.

The whole town is strewn with electrical wires blown completely bare of all insulation. These and many other things are what happened there in a few short moments. To think that just a few days ago, all these ruins were happy homes. Many of which can never be quite the same again, even when rebuilt, as there will always be one or more loved ones missing there who paid the supreme sacrifice to this storm.

What can we do about all this? Well, these people are our neighbors, and we can help them. They could probably get by some way without our help, but we can and will help them.

Already the city of Canyon and Randall County have done a lot, but after all there is no limit, and we can do a lot more. Just think, a city half the size of Canyon to be completely rebuilt and as soon as possible as all these people are doubling up living with friends, neighbors and relatives, wherever they can find room.

It looks like an endless job just cleaning up the mess of ruin so they can start rebuilding, let alone the building itself. These things cannot be done on a shoestring. It will take thousands of dollars and many, many a hard day of work to do these things, but they can and will be done. So, let's all put our shoulder to the wheel and help just a little more.

In a way it is not our duty but rather it is a privilege to help these good people to bear their cross in this time of grief and disaster. So let's do just a little more than our part.

I salute the Salvation Army for as usual it is there on the job, doing good.

Yours for a greater and better Glazier and Higgins, and let's not forget the good people of Woodward just because they are across the State line, for storms and ruin and pestilence and war know no State lines. These folks really need rehabilitation. Don't miss this chance to help your neighbor.

BOYCE HOUSE

There is no Texan about whom more stories are told than David Crockett, tho' most of them relate to his days in Tennessee before he came to Texas. Incidentally, while your radio columnist was in Crockett recently, citizens pointed out the tree under which the famous hunter camped while on his way to San Antonio where he died gloriously in the Alamo.

Davy moved into a new country in Tennessee when he was a young man. All he had to do on moving day was pour water on the fire and whistle up the dogs. He was made justice of the peace and as he said, "I got along pretty well. My judgments were never appealed from but if they had been they would have stuck like wax, as I gave my decisions on the principles of common justice and honesty between man and man, and relied on natural-born sense and not law-learning to guide me for I had never read a page in a law book in my life."

After serving in the legislature, Crockett decided to run for Congress. His opponents were two dignified and solemn individuals who took themselves quite seriously and ignored the back-woodsman in his hunting costume who told jokes and discussed matters in a common-sense kind of way. When the votes were counted, he had beaten both of them put together. He had to borrow money to make the trip to Washington. On his way, he stopped at an inn and in trying to get to the fire he accidentally jostled a self-important chap who demanded, "Who do you think you are?" Davy shouted, "I'm Davy Crockett, half horse and half alligator, a little touched with the snapping turtle. I can wade the Mississippi, jump the Ohio, ride a streak o' lightning and slide down a honey-locust without a scratch. I can whip my weight in wildcats and, if any gentleman pleases, for a $10-bill, he can throw in a panther. I can hug a bear too close for comfort and I can lick any man that's against Andrew Jackson."

Postponement of rent control legislation until after the Easter recess bolstered tenants' hopes that there would be no across-the-board 10% increase. Any increases forthcoming now will probably cover only new and planned construction.

Philip Murray's 700,000 steel workers will hold out for an 18 cents an hour wage increase and will insist that the agreement giving the CIO rubber workers an 11 1/2% wage boost was not the pattern for the industry since steel workers are the lowest paid of the big-industry members.

The Labor Department reports that the first quarter of 1947 was the happiest labor period since pre-war days. Strikes dropped more than 37% below the same period of 1946.

The Nation's soft coal output dropped 350,000 tons a day when Secretary Krug closed 518 unsafe mines.

To catch up on lagging appropriation cuts, Rep. Taber (R.-N. Y.) will try to boost military cuts from the original 10% to 15% and cut the Interior and Agriculture Departments more than 30%.

Nobody ever bought an ally that didn't get short-changed.

INFORMAL TEA HONORS AAUW GUEST SPEAKER

Mrs. Ruth Wilson Tryon of Washington, D. C., editor of the American Association of University Women Journal and secretary of the committee on fellowship endowment, was featured as the guest speaker at an informal tea given in her honor Sunday afternoon, April 20, at 3:30 in the Phebe K. Warner home management house by the Canyon branch.

Mrs. Tryon gave an inspirational talk on the fellowship student grant phase of the general A. A. U. W. Program. She informed the group that the A. A. U. W. is paying the expenses of thirty-seven foreign students who are attending universities and colleges in the United States for one year. Unusual is the fact that one man student is enrolled at the Texas State College for Women, Denton.

The speaker also related incidents, stories and comments of the students which revealed their gratitude not only to the A. A. U. W. group but to other contacts, and a sympathy with the American way of life. The foreign students who have been selected by the National Federation of University Women, are studying in highly specialized fields.

Mrs. Tryon stressed the fact that the prestige of the A. A. U. W. was due to the unity sustained in the 9878 chapters in the nation, by their studying the pertinent problems of the day. Emphasis was placed on the A. A. U. W., as being a channel for the young woman graduate.

During the social hour, Miss Edna Graham presided at the beautifully appointed refreshment table.

Guests were received by Miss Ruth Lowe, president, and Miss Novella Goodman, vice-president. Miss Katie McCluney and Miss Elizabeth Cox, hospitality committee, were in charge of arrangements.

Attending were members of the local group and five members of the newly-organized Plainview chapter, Mrs. F. E. Cave, Mrs. J. W. Walker, Mrs. John H. Moore, Miss Effie Jean Day, Mrs. R. S. Ziegler and the guest of honor, Mrs. Tryon.

Reeves Contribute Book on Lincoln

"Myths After Lincoln" by Lloyd Lewis is a recent gift to the rent collection of the college library from Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Reeves.

Based on informal history and the exploding of myths surrounding Lincoln, the book provides the homey, realistic, cracker-box gossip history of the Civil War and its leading characters.

Introduced by Carl Sandburg, "Myths of Lincoln" is described as being the result of Lewis' readings not only of the history of the war, but also of mythology, folk-lore, and myth-making. So full of his subject was he, that the author wrote of it—not as a book, but to be referred to if he later found he had forgotten anything. However, if a publisher desired to print the book, that would be well.

A publisher did and now WT has the book whose author people from every part of the United States have thanked for obeying his impulse.

WARREN'S

Band To Play Concert Thursday

After a several-week delay occasioned by everything from sickness to the weather, the second formal performance of the 70-piece Buffalo Concert Band will be heard Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Administration Building.

Admission-free, the hour-long concert will be conducted by M. J. Newman.

Mr. Newman announces that the largest portion of the program is to be modern and semi-modern, with only a few really classical pieces.

One of the highlights of the concert will be "Three Trombonists," a trio played by Bill Latson, Dick McCune and Bill Miller. This is a somewhat modern tune with a classical touch.

Something unusual for a band concert is to be a piano solo, "Repartee," with band accompaniment. Miss Matilda Gaume, assistant professor of music, is the soloist.

Of the more modern tunes on the program will be an arrangement of "Deep Purple," "Reverie," by Debussy is one of the modernistic classics scheduled.

Also slated are the exciting "Thunder and Blazes," a march, and the ever popular "Stars and Stripes Forever." Other marches will be "March Modernistic" and "The Elder Statesman."

On the classical side of the program will be the "Love Scene," from the opera "Boris Godounov," by Moussorgsky and the overture from "The Barber of Seville," by Rossini. As their concluding number, the bandsters will play "All Glory to God on High," by Bach and "Mazurka," by Lecoua.

Mr. Newman reports that the band is to have another concert this year, but that he has not decided the date or place. The first public performance of the band was in February when the band clinic was held here.

VFW Post Will Meet at Perryton Saturday - Sunday

Delegates from seventeen VFW posts representing the twenty-six Panhandle counties of the Ninth District will attend a quarterly encampment in Perryton Saturday and Sunday, April 26 and 27.

The Perryton Tri-County Post is host for the occasion which is expected to attract more than three hundred overseas veterans.

Highlights of the convention will be the election of district officers for the next two years and an address on "Communism" by C. R. Cryer, superintendent of Borger schools.

The convention will open Saturday at noon with registration of all delegates at convention headquarters in the Perryton Hotel. A "Cootie Scratch" for members of the Military Order of Cooties is scheduled for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

A public dance honoring VFW and Auxiliary delegates will begin at 9 o'clock Saturday night with music furnished by the Saddle Swingers, popular radio band from Station KHUZ in Borger.

Harry Kelly of Spearman will be master of ceremonies at a banquet at noon Sunday. Election of officers will follow the banquet with district commander Scott McCartney presiding.

Reservations for the convention have been coming in for the last three weeks according to O. C. Watson, commander of the Perryton post. Persons who expect to attend the convention are urged to make reservations in advance, however, accommodations will be arranged for all delegates.

Friemel, Willie and Kenneth Artho with Johnnie and Gerald Beckman, Bernice Grabber with Margaret Friemel, Anna Lindemann with Sadie Higgins, Betty Higgins and Barbara Raef with Helen Westhoff, and Carol Lindemann, Johnny and Gerald Beckman, Melvin Prizillas, Bobby Skarke, Joe Friemel, Joe and Willie Artho and Louis Raef with Jimmy Jansen.

"Bagging" growing fruit and vegetables including apples, peaches, pears, melons, broccoli to prevent disease and insect damage is being studied by makers of flexible packaging materials. Similar experiments with grapes were reasonably successful.

North American salmon producers face serious competition from (1) South American tuna industry backed by U. S. capital, and (2) Russians, who expect to send floating canneries into the north Pacific.

JUDGE AT SPEECH MEET

CLARIBEL BAIRD

Speech Festival Here Saturday

Fifteen Schools Plan To Attend WT Conference

Innovating a meeting of high school students to stress participation rather than rivalry, the First West Texas Speech Festival will begin at 9 Saturday morning and continue until 5 o'clock.

With more than 175 speakers signifying their intention to attend, 15 schools of the Panhandle Texas-Oklahoma-New Mexico region will send delegates to the conference which is to be conducted in the Education Building. Members of the college speech department, headed by Crannell Tolliver, Mrs. Tommie Montfort, and W. A. Moore, have planned the convention and will be hosts to the visiting students.

Emphasis on Improvement

"Primarily, our purpose in sponsoring the meet is to eliminate the winning and losing angle," declares Mr. Tolliver. "We want to enable the student to have experience in various speech events. He should gain from watching others and listening to the helpful suggestions for improvement."

Highlight of the day's events will be a "Junior Town Meeting of the Air," broadcast over Amarillo radio stations KGNC and KFDD from 4 to 4:45 o'clock. Announced by moderator John Trimble of KGNC, the program will stem from an opening discussion by Amarillo High School students taught by Miss Mercer. Each school will be represented by a questioner.

As principal judge for the Festival, Mrs. Claribel Buford Baird, professor of Speech from Oklahoma College for Women, will arrive in Canyon Friday evening. Saturday night at 8 o'clock, the speech department and Alpha Psi Omega will honor her with a reception in the Cousins lounge. All faculty members are invited to attend.

More Judges

Other judges will be announced later.

Directors name nine divisions of entry for speakers: original oratory, oratorical declamation, dramatic reading, humorous reading poetry reading, book review, extemporaneous reading for boys, extemporaneous reading for girls and radio speaking.

School planning to send delegates to the meeting are: Levelland, Crosbyton, Clarendon, Childress, Dimmitt, White Deer, Clovis, Canyon, Shamrock, Booker, Turkey, Lefors, Amarillo, Goodwell, Okla., and W. T. High.

Vaccination Against Typhoid Advocated By Health Officer

If you have not been vaccinated against typhoid fever within the last two or three years, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, advises you to go to your doctor or to the nearest health officer and have him give you the three "shots" that will protect you against the disease.

"The three shots that will protect against typhoid are given at intervals of one week apart," Dr. Cox stated. "As it takes some time for the protective treatment to be established throughout the system, it is wise not to delay in having it done. My advice is, have it done now so that immunization may be complete before summer arrives and vacation trips are taken."

This advice was addressed particularly to Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and other youngsters who are looking forward to spring and summer hikes and trips. It is, however, meant also for others, young and old, whose business or pleasure during the summer will take them to places where there may be doubt as to the purity or safety of the water supply, or as to the care with which food is handled.

The old adage that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure" is particularly applicable to this disease, which is so dangerous and debilitating when it does occur, and which can be prevented, so easily through immunization.

Hard oak flooring is still skyrocketing. It's up from its pre-war range ($42.50 to $62.50) to as high as $400 per 1,000 feet.

Astronomer Illustrates Model Telescope in Talk

Mr. Robert T. Edgar, authority on the great 200" telescope will bring giant models to illustrate his lecture demonstration, "The Cyclops of Palomar," the giant "eye" on mile high Mt. Palomar in Southern California, Wednesday, April 30, 2:15 p.m.

This great instrument will bring the moon to within about twenty-five miles of the earth, revealing secrets of time and space to intrigue the minds of thinking people the world over.

Explains Telescope

The story of this incredible undertaking is unfolded by Robert T. Edgar, in his lecture "The Cyclops of Palomar." Born in Scotland, educated in Australia, now an American citizen, Mr. Edgar brings first hand information of the telescope through the inventions and contributions which his father has made in connection with the mounting of the great instrument as he explains in his talk. The talk is non-technical and is presented a brisk, entertaining manner by Mr. Edgar, who illustrates his points with his unique models of the telescope and mirror.

Picture Brings

By means of a work picture of a visit to an observatory at night time, Mr. Edgar brings to his audience the magnitude of the undertaking in building and designing the world's greatest "eye."

MORE ORCHIDS

All year we've been passing out orchids — figuratively, of course, to various deserving persons, but this for ourselves. The conduct of our student-body last Friday at the all-school picnic was worthy of a few posies.

Approximately three hundred students attended the picnic and returned with no casualties. During the noon hour there was very little disorderly conduct and students served themselves quickly and efficiently. Waste of food was certainly kept at a minimum and all empty coke bottles were returned to their cases. Well almost all, of course, a few of them smashed themselves on rocks—but just a few. Boxes were conveniently placed for disposal of garbage and all debris was cleared away before we left the canyons.

The buses made the return trip at the hour scheduled because students assembled at the appointed time. Our behavior was indeed a tribute to Canyon High School. Let's plan for more all-school activities in the future.

Picnic Highlights Events of Week

Just who did get back first—the seniors or the juniors? That is just one of the many questions which confronted the blistered and exhausted—but happy students of CHS last Friday afternoon after their return from the all-day outing at Palo Duro State Park.

Approximately three hundred twenty-five people attended this all-school picnic sponsored by the members of the Student-Faculty Congress. The frolic began Friday morning at 8:30, when students reported to their respective classes and were assigned to busses. Ten of the large school busses transported participants to and from the canyons.

Activities Vary

Arriving at the park, which is noted as a spot of scenic beauty and interest on the plains, students explored caves, hiked over hill and dale, scaled the canyon walls, slid down Devil's Slide, and wore themselves out in general until noon.

The group then gathered at the Seventh Crossing for lunch, which consisted of hot dogs with chili-bean sauce, boiled eggs, cookies, and iced cokes. The food was prepared by the cafeteria employees under the supervision of Mrs. J. H. Lisle and was served by the room mothers.

After lunch football, basketball, baseball, hiking, wading, and various other out-door sports provided recreation for the remainder of the afternoon.

Attending the picnic other than students and faculty members were Mesdames Alfred Bellah, Ross Craig, S. S. Howell, Lavert Avent, Burney Slack, Guy Brant, Windy Nicklaus, Tom Payne, Walter Graham, Roy Montgomery, W. C. Angel, R. E. Ruthart, J. W. Carter, room mothers; and Messrs. W. J. Phelps, David Horn, Smith, McDuff, Roy Montgomery, John Gum, G. G. Pond, Foster, Baker, and Raymond Tuck, bus drivers.

'Health Hints' Is PTA Program

"Health Hints" was the subject of Mrs. L. M. Cousins' fourth grade class demonstration given for the PTA last Thursday.

Lucy Hollabaugh, mistress of ceremony, presented the following students who discussed different phases of health: Frank Lill, "What is a Strong Body"; Helen Martin, "Safety"; Windene Nicklaus, "Balanced Diet"; Betty Burrus, "Care of the Eyes"; David Miller, "Structure and Care of the Ears"; Jimmie Golden, "Structure and Care of the Teeth"; Ken Kuykendall, "Exercise." The program was concluded with the class singing an appropriate health song.

Mrs. Dan Sanders gave a report on the highlight of the recent District PTA conference held at Borger. New Officers Nominated

New officers were nominated to take the place of members who could not serve as officials in the next year's roster. Mrs. R. E. Ball will be secretary, and Mrs. R. A. Nebbett will serve as study course chairman for 1947-48.

In the grade school Mrs. L. M. Cousins fourth grade, for the second consecutive time, won the dollar for having the most mothers present. In the high school the freshmen were winners.

There will be one more meeting of the group this year, scheduled for the last Thursday in May, but the date may be changed to suit the convenience of the closing exercises of the school.

Members of CHS Choir Sing Anthems at Baptist Revival

CHS choir members, attired in their new robes, presented to the Baptist congregation last Thursday night at 8:15, the following numbers: "Peace Be Still," "Cherubim Song," "Fair Lord Jesus" and "Sanctus" under the direction of Mr. M. D. Shepherd.

The choir numbers preceded the evangelistic services, which were conducted by the Rev. W. J. Wimpee.

This is the third in a series of recent appearances for the choir. The first being before the patients of the Veterans Administration in Amarillo, the second at a meeting of the Canyon Rotary Club.

Billy Abbott and Wilbert Long practiced basketball under Coach Gus Miller last Thursday, April 17, at Burton Gym. They are going to Wayland College at Plainview to practice some time soon.

SCF Completes Plans for Picnic

In meetings Wednesday and Thursday, April 16 and 17, Student Faculty Congress members made plans for the all-school picnic held Friday, April 18.

Hotdogs, pop, and cookies were decided upon as the main fare and the hot dogs and cookies were to be prepared by the CHS lunch room, while Donnell Ruthart had charge of the pops, paper plates, and napkins.

Invitations to the picnic were sent to all roommothers by the SCF.

It was decided to take the busses for student transportation and Donnell Ruthart and Harold Martin were to take pickups to transport the food.

Billy Abbott entered vaulting at the regional track meet Saturday which was held in Lubbock. He made eight and one-half feet but did not place. Frances Gooch and Betty Ann Miller went to Lubbock but got there too late to enter in tennis doubles.

Charles Wright has been working out with the prospective Buffalo football boys each afternoon after school.

Three senior rings, ordered late, arrived Thursday. They were for Jeannie Irwin, Maxine Barnard and Orville Haven, who has moved but will receive his by mail.

Telephone service between the U. S. and Russia now is available on two radio-telephone circuits linking New York and Moscow. The rate for a three-minute call is $12 on weekdays and $9 on Sundays. Telephone service between the U. S. and Romania has also been resumed for the first time since 1941. A three-minute call between the two countries now costs $12, about half the prewar rate.

Nine Seniors See Melchior Concert

Nine senior English students heard Melchior sing last Wednesday night in the Amarillo Municipal Auditorium.

They were the guests of Mrs. Cecil Simms, who is one of CHS's most ardent fine arts enthusiasts.

Since the appearance of Mr. Melchior, leading artist of the Metropolitan Opera Company of New York City, and his orchestra director, Otto Seffert, is one of the outstanding musical high lights in this part of the country, these seniors will have added an extra amount of knowledge by hearing this concert.

The following pupils attended: Muriel Faye Cope, Geraldine Small, C. L. Hood, Ridings Sloan, Orville Turner, James Riggsby, Jeannie Irvine, Bill Davis, and Louise Blewett.

1947 Junior Class Receives Plaque for Magazine Sales

In a called class meeting, Wednesday, May 16, Mrs. A. K. Knott presented the juniors with the bronze plaque they won for selling the greatest number of magazines for any school of their size in the state.

To win this honor the class sold subscriptions amounting to a total of $1097.50 but only approximately one-fourth of the amount has given to the class. The Curtis Company received the greater share.

This money is used to defray any expenses which the class incurs with the greater per cent going to the serving of the Junior-Senior banquet.

The class chose Miss Loula Grace Erdman, well-known fiction writer, as the speaker at the banquet.

Do you know that picnic almost got me down, but they tell me a bad penny always turns back up, so I might as well tell you what I dug up.

News of the week; Jerry Bailey seemed very interested in Wanda Jean Edwards at the picnic Friday.

Who do Othella Pruitt, Helen Spencer and Odessa Scruggs talk to every noon?

Lewis Seay had better put his protection policy in force because there are several eighth grade girls already hot on his trail.

Someone told me that Martha Wilson and "Rusty" Davis had a lot of fun Thursday night at the show.

Frankie Sneed and Jo Ann Bullard seemed to be having fun Sunday afternoon. Is that why you were late at the recital, girls?

I guess Billy Payne was following the good neighbor policy by escorting W. T.'s Shirley Goodman to church Sunday night.

We hear that Peggy La Loge is having some stiff competition from a certain little eighth-grader.

What has happened to Bobby Foster and Mary Ann Baker and those two Happy fellows?

Meade, were you and Dorothy Butler playing follow the leader? ... or something? Hmmm!

I heard Anita Ruthart and Tommy Dotson and Betty Miller and Donnell Ruthart were doing OK on the picnic.

Thursday night two cars whizzed by me and do you know what? In one I saw Carol Smith and Travis Montgomery, Maxine Barnard and Alvin Risner, and Joyce Stipe. In the other I got a fleeting glimpse of Merle Bullard and Walton Byrd.

Trying to find a seat in the show Saturday night, I was met by an oncoming rush of Billie Bonds and Gary Barnett, Ema Jean Zachry and Billy May, and Ruby Bonds and Dale Whitlow.

Then I saw a vacant seat and with a last leap, I found myself sitting in the laps of Opal Brant and Jimmy Wooten, and in front of Billie Money and Melvin Smith.

Carroll Sorrell took a liking to Zonelle Gregg at the dance Thursday. What about that C. L.?

Seems that Marvin Fite was somewhat worried Sunday night after church. It wouldn't be because of Jean Hill, would it?

Could these school shows be another chance for new romances? No! Well, I'd like to know what about Max Bellah and Rebecca Irvine and Charles Mobley and Claudine Beavers.

Barbara McDougal sure is getting around lately. First with Landon Barrett Thursday night and then with Troy Burrus. Well, girls.

Max Bellah Wins Orchestral Part

Max Bellah will play the piano solo for the late spring concert next year. He was the contestant with the highest grade in the division of piano soloists, 16 and over, who entered the annual competition last Sunday, April 13, at the Musical Arts Conservatory.

The judges for the contest were Boyd Ringer of Tulsa University, James Niblock of Colorado College, and Miss Alice A. Cave of Oklahoma A&M College.

Mendelssohn's "Capriccio Brillante," Op 22 (Schirmer), is the selection designated by the concert committee, which Max will play. He will appear as soloist with the Amarillo Junior Symphony.

Mrs. Glenn, director of the Musical Arts Conservatory, is Max Bellah's teacher.

Store Owner Is Mr. Roy Price

Roy Price, new owner of the school store, took over operation Tuesday, April 15. Mr. Price has been in this type of business 38 years. He came to Canyon from Amarillo where he operated the PX in the Veterans Hospital. Prior to that time he owned business in Friona and Bonham, Texas. Being a watchmaker by trade he has specialized in jewelry and drugs.

Lines to be Added

A complete line of drug and toilet articles will be carried and groceries will be added in the near future. Some of the other products to be carried are: nylon hose, watches, clocks, and stationery. He is getting a new cooling system for the soft drinks and hopes to have a sufficient supply of Nestles, Hershey and other good candies to sell the rest of the year. Lunches will continue to be served at noon.

Machines Removed

As soon as school is out Mr. Price is going to enlarge the building and completely remodel the inside.

All the "penny machines" in the store will be removed as soon as the company sends a man around for them.

"I wish to co-operate with the administration, faculty, and students to the fullest possible extent and will appreciate any helpful suggestions that they may offer," states Mr. Price.

U. S.-British to Rule Big Zones

Occupation Area Covers Region of Germany's Chief Resources.

WASHINGTON. — Completed arrangements for economic union between American and British occupation zones involve less than half of Germany's prewar territory, but a major proportion of its population and industry and much of its agricultural resources.

Together, the United States and British zones cover all of western Germany except southwest patches under French control.

The combined region amounts to more than 80,000 square miles—about the size of Minnesota—compared with 85,500 square miles under the Russian and Polish administration, and about 16,500 square miles under the French.

Vast Population Involved.

American and British zones, however, have a total population estimated at more than 37 million, while the other occupying powers control only about 23 million. In addition are the 3 million Germans living in jointly held Berlin.

In the British zone is the battered but rich Ruhr district that was the Nazis' wartime arsenal, the main source of the nation's coal, iron and steel output. The crowded, smoke-blackened cities of this region produced explosives, armaments, chemicals, synthetic oil and rubber, high-octane gasoline, textiles, dyes and plastics. Ruhr coal fields normally account for three-fourths of Germany's coal supply.

Also in the British zone are the chief German seaports—Hamburg and Bremen. The latter, with its surrounding country, has been set aside as a trans-shipment point for the landlocked American section.

Farming, too, is of considerable importance in some portions of the British zone, especially in the Rhine valley and the fertile plains of Hanover and Westphalia, long noted for their vineyards and orchards, for cereals, cattle and hog production.

Farming in South.
The emphasis, however, is on heavy industry in the north, compared with the farm and forest economy, which, together with light industry, is conspicuous in the United States-occupied south. In rural Bavaria, for example, largest of the southern provinces, innumerable small farms yield grains, vegetables and dairy products.

From highland forest and the valleys of the Main, upper Rhine and Danube rivers come such raw materials as wood, grapes and hops used in local industry. "Cottage industries" and big city centers—Stuttgart in Wurttemberg, Mannheim in Baden and Munich in Bavaria—turned out a variety of goods, ranging from carved figures, beer and textiles, to chemicals, automobiles and airplanes.

Both the American and British sections of the unified zone hold a large share of the attractions prewar Germany offered tourists—including the Black Forest, Alpine regions of health and vacation resorts, and the historic, castle-crowned shores of the Rhine and Danube.

600 Flags for Vets' Graves

Made Daily at Philadelphia
PHILADELPHIA. — Ninety Philadelphia women, many of them wives or mothers of servicemen and veterans, are helping to pay this country's final respects to her fallen heroes.

They are turning out the largest single order of American interment flags in history.

The seamstresses' assignment calls for production of 169,000 additional copies of the Stars and Stripes to be used to drape caskets of servicemen who fell on the field of honor in World War II.

An anticipated 240,000 flags will be required, but about 70,000 of the type needed are now available.

A recently-devised method has increased production from 225 to 600 completed flags daily.

New Rubber Riveter Provides Power Without Annoying Noise

NEW YORK. — A rubber riveter with loads of power but no clatter was offered as a boon to tired ears. U. S. Rubber company announced a hose of oil-resisting synthetic rubber reinforced with steel wire can carry hydraulic fluid under enough pressure to flatten a cold steel rivet into place with one powerful stroke.

The silent riveter is used in automobile and other factories where the work can be brought close to the riveter. It is too large and heavy for use in building construction, the company said.

Plan 8,000 Cut in Strength Of United States Marines

WASHINGTON. — The marine corps announced plans to reduce its strength by 8,000 men.

There are approximately 103,000 enlisted men now on active duty, the corps said. The cut would bring the figure to 95,000.

Any marine with two years of service on February 1, or 18 months of service which included one combat engagement, was made eligible for discharge.

Storm Prevention Is Seen by Scientist

Tells Group How Hurricanes May Be Dispersed.

NEW YORK. — Ways to overcome weather hazards in flying were outlined by Dr. V. K. Zworykin, experimenter in electronics at the Radio Corporation of America's Princeton laboratories in an address before the Institute of Aeronautical Sciences.

Hurricanes may be dispersed, Dr. Zworykin said, and rain may be made, first through the speed with which an electronic computer now approaching completion can synthesize all elements in weather problems and, second, through application of energy in small doses from spreads of blazing oil to heat critical portions of the atmosphere or blacked-over areas to cool them.

All such action, however, is dependent upon the forecaster's exact knowledge of conditions as they build up, he said, since under present forecasting methods data cannot be assembled fast enough and completely enough to make action valuable. With the computer, he explained, a forecaster can recognize the beginnings of a hurricane in the doldrums near the equator in time to order oil spread and fired at a critical point where it would break up the formation.

Similar action might be taken by the spread of artificial white fog on the ground or at sea to create heat through reflection of the sun's rays, or by the spread of carbon black on either land or sea to absorb the rays and thus cool a critical point in the air mass, Dr. Zworykin asserted. Though the energies involved in storms are enormous, he said, the amount of energy required to "trigger" them off at points where they do no harm is insignificant.

Boys, Apart 30 Years, Develop in Same Way

BRISBANE, AUSTRALIA. — Identical twins, separated in a South Australian orphanage at the age of eight, met here for the first time in 30 years, wearing the same type of open-neck shirt and smoking the same brand of tobacco.

They are Lin and Lee Mills, each 5 feet, 6 inches in height, with only one pound difference in weight. Lin is married, with two children, and lives in a Brisbane suburb. Lee, who is two hours older than Lin, was discharged from the Australian air force in November.

Their meeting was arranged by a friend of Lin, who had met Lee on the street, and mistaken him for Lin. Comparing tastes after a 30 years' separation, they found that both intensely disliked marmalade, both are fond of horses, both drink moderately and smoke heavily. Neither has had a serious sickness. They both have lost the same teeth and have had the same front teeth filled.

Government Begins Study of Tuberculosis; Hopes for Cure

WASHINGTON.—Surgeon General Thomas Parran of the U. S. Public Health service announced establishment of a new research program which, he said, was being undertaken "in the hope of finding a specific cure for tuberculosis."

The research will be conducted in the tuberculosis therapy study section of the Public Health service's National Institute of Health Research Grants Division.

Dr. Parran said the research program was expected to provide a "final evaluation" of streptomycin and other anti-biotics and chemotherapeutic agents in the treatment of tuberculosis.

The study section will be headed by Dr. H. Stuart Willis of Northville, Mich., and Dr. H. Corwin Hinshaw of the Mayo foundation, Rochester, Minn.

British Mother Gets Mail

Clew to Son Believed Dead

ELIZABETH, N. J. — An unsigned Christmas card to a British mother — in an envelope addressed in the hand of her soldier son who was supposed to have died at Singapore almost five years ago—sent police on a city-wide search.

The envelope, postmarked in Elizabeth last December 6, was received by Mrs. M. Sharpe of Nottingham, England. She forwarded it to Mayor James T. Kirk of Elizabeth, asking his aid.

The woman wrote that she knew the handwriting "only too well"—yet her son "was supposed to have died in 1942 while a prisoner of the Japs."

20 Per Cent Increase Asked For Cadets and Middies

WASHINGTON. — A 20 per cent pay boost for cadets at West Point and midshipmen at Annapolis was asked of congress. Rear Adm. J. F. Galloway from the naval academy and Brig. Gen. G. J. Higgins from the military academy told the senate armed services committee the boys are "going into the red" on their present $65 a month. The two officials suggested a base pay of $78 a month.

Night Track Performance First in WestTex History

Track fans of West Texas State and the Panhandle will get their first glimpse of the 1947 cinder squad Saturday night, April 26, when the Maroon will play host to squads from Texas Tech, Hardin-Simmons, Amarillo Junior College and possibly Panhandle A&M.

The night duel, the first of its kind ever to be held at the Buffalo oval, will start at 7:30 o'clock and it is hoped that the events can be run off in two and a half hours. Admission for the meet will be 50 cents for outsiders and students will be admitted on their activity tickets.

So far this year, the Buff track machine has not been too active due to many injuries incurred by the team. Seven of Coach Clark Jarnigan's charges were laid up with ailments during the first half of spring football training, but those who did not come out for grid activities continued to work.

Early in March the Maroon speedsters traveled to the Southwestern Track and Field meet at Fort Worth but succeeded only in bringing in one third place and that in the mile relay race. A brisk wind and a damp track prevented the local boys from gathering in more points and places.

Little is known of the competing teams of Hardin-Simmons and Amarillo Junior College but the aggregation from Tech is heralded as the best in that school's history. Two weeks ago the Red Raiders placed second in the El Paso meet losing to the powerful Arizona Wildcats by only six points.

Tennis, both singles and doubles, will be played off Saturday afternoon on the local courts. Texas Tech, led by George Schmidt, is expected to be the top team to beat in the net division. Amarillo Junior College also has a promising tennis squad.

After this meet, the Jarnigan-men will travel to Abilene on May 2 to do battle with McMurry and Abilene Christian College in a triangular tussle. May 9 and 10 will find the Thundering Herd sprinters and field men in Albuquerque to compete in the Border Conference gravel-meet.

Employees of the financial exchanges in New York are agitating for more pay. They argue that there isn't enough exchange, and you can quote them on that.

Okra seed oil is as palatable as the best cotton seed oil, recent research in the South shows. But before it can compete with cottonseed, okra must be bred for thinner hulls, oil content, bigger yield.

Seniors To Give Comedy Friday

"A Date With Judy" will be presented by the senior class of West Texas High School Friday, May 2, in the auditorium of the education building.

Two performances are scheduled, with curtain times one o'clock in the afternoon and eight o'clock in the evening.

Arrangements for the production are in charge of the speech department. Shirley Byars of Canyon and Joy Cain of Longbeach, California will co-direct the presentation, while Bill Robinson of South Gifford, Missouri will be in charge of stage preparations, assisted by high school students Earl Reynolds and Billy McDougal.

Del Bellflower of Pampa is business and publicity director, assisted by Bill Hutchinson also of Pampa. W. A. Moore, speech director will supervise the production.

Tickets may be secured from members of the WT senior class. Admission prices are 60 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

A super airport for Hong Kong is being planned. The site for a field with 8,000-foot runways, capable of future extension is to be chosen by the British Ministry of Civil Aviation. The field, to be the most modern and luxurious in the Orient, will accommodate the world's largest planes.

The U. S. is engaged in a race between education and destruction. We can only hope that sufficient time will be given us to educate world public opinion to look to the United Nations and not to war for the settlement of differences between nations.—Sarah G. Blanding, president, Vassar college.

The Navy will enlist the aid of historians and educators in completing the naval history of World War II. When security rules are relaxed, more than 1.5 million top-secret war documents will be turned over to the writers as background.

The rising business mortality rate indicates that the time when any kind of enterprise could make money is about over. A great many fields have been over-crowded, and badly financed outfits just can't hang on. The experts think the rate may go much higher.

Optimistic Forecast, which Westinghouse will use as a basis for long term spending, disagrees with some current predictions. Vice President Newbury's report says: (1) no prolonged depression before the middle 1950's, "but a favorable opinion about the late -950s is not so logical"; (2) no cyclical recession in 1947, but some mild recession in 1948, possibly extending into 1949.

If Russia had the atomic bomb, it would already have been dropped on the United States.—William C. Bullitt, former ambassador to the Soviet Union.

Russian trade with the U. S. during 1946 gave the Soviet Union a favorable balance of more than $80,000,000. The balance was made possible by the fact that 85 per cent of Russia's imports from the U. S., amounting to $304,542,000, was shipped as gifts or Lend-Lease. In actual commercial transactions, the Soviet Union sold almost twice as much in America as she bought. Russian shipments, chiefly furs, exceeded purchases by $47,236,000. In addition, Russia sold $33,729,000 worth of gold to the U. S.

Britain's output of open-cast coal is expected to increase 50 per cent with use of American machinery. About $15,000,000 worth of excavating equipment has just been bought in the U. S. by a British mission. Some two-thirds of the machinery will go to open-cast mines in order to boost their present output of 9,000,000 tons a year to 15,000,000. First delivery is looked for next autumn; all the machinery is to be in Britain by the spring of 1949.

Angel at the Tomb

Angels are divine messengers to men, bearers of the Good News of God's presence and blessing. They sang at the birth of Jesus, assuring peace on the earth to men of goodwill. They spoke to the women at the tomb the word of liberty that had long been awaited by sorrowing woman hearts. And now they sing at every Christian grave around the world, assuring the bereaved that there is life beyond. Our loved ones do not come back to us in the flesh; they go on ahead of us into the Heavenlies, and there we shall find them in the household of God. To all who have eyes of faith and whose ears have become attuned to angelic speech the messengers of God announce Life Eternal. Because they have brought this good word of truth you may join the great Apostle in the exclamation of wondrous faith, "O Death, where is thy sting? O Grave where is thy victory?" TOMBS AND GRAVES CLOSE IN OVER ONLY THE DUST, WHILE THE SPIRITS OF THE CHILDREN OF GOD RISE INTO THE DIVINE PRESENCE THERE TO ABIDE. The angels are telling us that we are the eternal children of the eternal God; Heaven is our home and God is the Father of our Spirits; we are joint heirs with Jesus Christ. Attend Church this Easter Sunday.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.
